

JAYE MAYNARD* appears courtesy Actors Equity Association

A Wisco Woman, Jaye received her Master of Arts in Vocal Performance at NYU before appearing as Myra in the long running hit of North Hollywood: GIRL GANG, Fringe NYC 2004 and recent general partner with NYMF at Atlantic Stage 2. She is an avid Yogini and operates 'Whirling Dervish customized personal assistance(tm)' in Manhattan. She has graced the stages of The Algonquin Hotels Oak Room in Peccadillo Theatre's: Talk of the Town as Edna Ferber, Park Slope's Gallery Players in The Spitfire Grill and Prospect Theatre's Pursuit of Persephone as Mrs. Ginevra King and the chanteuse. Most recently she played Inner Jewish Mother in Three Dames Make a Queen at Don't Tell Mama and Laura in Katherine Wms My Dead Mother is Funnier than You. As a producer she co-owns and operates Angry Girl Gang Productions with her fellow University of Utah Alum: Mark W. Knowles. At summer's Midtown International Theater Festival she Assistant Directed and helped produce: Charles and Diana-the Musical and has championed the self producing artists with her own PlaidBird Productions. Her one person show: The Twisted Barbie Show is currently in the works as is a biopic cabaret tribute to the late Blossom Dearie and her songbook. She is star of a short film currently on the indie festival circuit Aaliyah Miller's: After The Headlines. Winner of best dramatic scene at Pasadena's Action on Film Festival. Please visit: jayemaynard.com.